

1 yesterday which, I think, must be acted upon, but will 2 not require a great deal of discussion. If we can carry 3 through this program we ought to conclude the session this 4 evening without too much longer time, and I think we 5 could then adjourn until about noon tomorrow, have a
6 session to take care of a number of housekeeping details
7 that must be taken care of such as post Convention
8 procedures, resolutions of thanks, and a number of other
9 matters of that sort, hopefully to conclude the session
10 by four o'clock or thereabouts tomorrow afternoon, adjourn
11 to Saturday and take final votes on Saturday assuming that 12 the Committee on Style is able to complete its work 13 tomorrow as they hope they can and have available their 14 final report for consideration Saturday.

15 The only reason for acting on second reading 16 by the Convention tonight on these schedules is that, as 17 I indicated several days ago, I have had the staff of the 18 Committee on Style reviewing these two schedules for the 19 past few days so that if they had any serious style
20 amendments, they could present them to us very promptly.

21 They do not have any such amendments to
