

1 requirements which have been set out before us, so I think
2 on both counts the section is needed, and I hope this 3 amendment is adopted.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Hardwicke.

5 DELEGATE HARDWICKE: I think we may be belaboring
6 something which, the more we discuss it the less important
7 it becomes. It is almost impossible to knock down bugaboos, 8 skeletons, unexpressed and undetermined fears, and 9 authoritative legal opinions not based upon any particular 10 case law, or any particular provision of law, but I want
11 to point out that in 10.01, as amended today, we inserted 12 this language, and listen to it very carefully. This is 13 the amendment that we adopted today:

14 "A law in effect on June 30, 1968, shall not 15 be deemed in conflict with this Constitution solely because 16 it was enacted pursuant to authority granted by provision
17 of the prior Constitution."

18 We adopted this language ---

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Just a second, Delegate Hardwicke.
20 You may proceed.

21 DELEGATE HARDWICKE: We adopted this language
