

1 even though several counties may be covered. I just
2 suggest that perhaps it might be appropriate to include
3 that language to avoid any confusion there.

4 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Koss.

5 DELEGATE KOSS: First of all, it would seem
6 to me that any law providing for a congressional districting
7 or for reapportionment would be a public general law. I
8 can't conceive of one which would apply to only one
9 county and be considered a local law.

10 Districting of a county for the purposes of 11 electing county officials would be subject to whatever
12 referendum its local instrument of government provided.
13 I assumed you were referring to congressional districting
14 or districting of the General Assembly.

15 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Sollins?

16 DELEGATE SOLLINS: I do not note from the 17 language of the amendment that it says specifically local
18 laws. It merely says the General Assembly shall prescribe
19 by law procedures by which a law enacted by it and 20 applicable only in one county.

21 I suggest that there is this possibility, a
