

1 on referendum under this section and, yet, by strict
2 reading of the words, I am not sure it would be.

3 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Koss.

4 DELEGATE KOSS: Delegate Lord, I think you
5 assumed our intention. Any law under the current Consti-
6 tution which affects more than one county is referable
7 only as a public general law. It was our intention 8 to continue that.

9 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Lord, the intent was 10 exactly the converse of what you suggested. The 11 intent here was to have referendum locally only of a law
12 applicable to one county only.

13 If a law was applicable to anything more than 14 one county, it would be referable only under Section 15 2.10 on a statewide basis.

16 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Lord.

17 DELEGATE LORD: Mr. President, maybe I had 18 better address this question to you. Would this mean 19 that if a law has some effect outside of one county that 20 the only way that this law could be knocked out would 21 be by statewide referendum?
