

1 not the logic, sir.

2 THE PRESIDENT: Very well.

3 Delegate Willoner.

4 DELEGATE WILLONER: Delegate Koss, why did
5 you leave out the Section 8 of the 3.23, that no law
6 empowering a county to exercise a power or perform a
7 function is petitionable to referendum?

8 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Koss.

9 DELEGATE KOSS: It was the assumption that
10 unless that were implemented by the local governing
11 body, that it would be petitionable, according to the 12 charter when it was implemented by local governing body.

13 THE PRESIDENT: Any further discussion?

14 Delegate Bamberger?

15 DELEGATE BAMBERGER: Mr. Chairman, I would
16 appreciate it if some of the sponsors of the amendment
17 would explain to us the rationale behind what I understand
18 from the Chair and from Delegate Koss is the effect of 19 this. If, for instance, there is a law which applies to 20 some multi-county governmental unit, or which affected, let 21 us say, only two counties, why should that be referred to
