

1 DELEGATE DELLA: Mr. President, I would
2 like to recognize the presence of Anne Hopkins' husband
3 in the balcony, Sam Hopkins.

4 (Applause)

5 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Hardwicke.

6 DELEGATE HARDWICKE: Mr. President, ordinarily
7 I don't take the Convention's time, but I would think I
8 have to in self defense; otherwise, when I get home I
9 will hear about it. I would like to indicate the presence
10 of my wife, Mary, my daughters, Sandra, Christine, and 11 Heidi Hardwicke, and my sons, John and Timothy, in the 12 balcony over the President's head and my daughter, Sue
13 Jill, who is serving as a page in the front there.

14 (Applause)

15 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Pullen.

16 DELEGATE PULLEN: Is that thing working?

17 THE PRESIDENT: Yes.

18 (Laughter)

19 DELEGATE PULLEN: I wasn't going to do this,
20 but I would like to note in these closing hours the 21 presence of my wife who is supposed to be up there and
