

1 say we also recommend as part of our report, it needn't
2 be done by rule, that the Secretary of the Convention
3 have the power, provided he furnishes the Convention with 4 a copy of what he has done, to eliminate numerical, you
5 know, cross reference, numerical errors, grammatical
6 errors, that sort of thing; and I think rather than come 7 back to this Convention every time we found out that we 8 didn't dot an "i" or made an erroneous cross reference,
9 that this would be a sensible way to do it.

10 There was also a proposal originally suggested
11 by Delegate Case, who unfortunately is ill today, that 12 would have limited debate on third reading to new matters, 13 and Delegate Case's proposal had some merit. The 14 Committee considered it carefully, but we feel in view of 15 the liberality with which the previous question can be 16 moved in the Convention, not in the Committee of the 17 Whole, but in the Convention, there was no need to put any 18 further restrictions on what the content of debate on 19 third reading would be; so we rejected that proposal.

20 There was also some question of whether the Chair
