

1 the Honorable Godfrey Child, Judge and Delegate.
2 I only arise to make a matter of record a contribution
3 made by him of such great proportion. As the breezes
4 wafted from the right side of the chamber in this direc-
5 tion during the early days of our Convention sessions,
6 they brought with them a quality of smoke which this
7 side could not but appreciate, and ever increasingly more
8 so.

9 It was 30 years ago that I used to smoke a pipe.
10 I gave it up because it was such a nuisance.

11 As I sat here and began to appreciate that our
12 occupation was going to be a sedentary one, the desire
13 came back again. I turned to Judge Child and said,
14 "What is that mixture you are smoking?"

15 The reply was, with great laconicness, if that
16 is the correct word, "It is my own mixture."

17 And that is where the matter rested about three
18 or four days.

19 We became more friendly and I said, "Judge,
20 can I have a little bit of tobacco?"

21 He gave me one pipe full, and that is where the
