

1 matter rested for another four or five days.

2 Then there came a time when the judge came over 3 and he said, "This is my own personal mixture." That is 4 where it rested for the week.

5 Then he came over and said, "This is the way
6 the mixture has been arrived at over my 30 years of smoking
7 it, but I give it to you, and I give it to you alone."

8 If this were only between me and Judge Child
9 himself I would not feel it of the stature to rise and 10 state it of record. But as I began to smoke his mixture,
11 not knowing what it was, it began to affect Delegate
12 Carter in back of me, and there came a day when he leaned
13 forward and said, "What is that tobacco you are smoking?"

14 I said, "It is Judge Child's, and he told me I
15 couldn't tell anyone else what it was, and I don't know, 16 frankly."

17 That is the way the matter rested for the first 18 month of our being together here.

19 Then Judge Child came over -- and by this 20 time we had debated, and there had been established a degree
21 of rapport -- and he said "Al --" and I knew we were on
