

1 but their good spirits and their very, very attractive
2 manners. (Applause.)

3 And now I have suspended operation in the
4 print shop. It has been on a 24 hour basis for the past
5 three days. I said that regardless of what work has to be
6 done, it will not be done at this moment.

7 I would like you to extend a very, very hearty
8 welcome to the man who, more than any other person, is
9 responsible for the flow of documents that have
10 come to your desk in, I may say to you, millions of pieces
11 of paper, Mr. Paul Harris. (Applause.)

12 His assistants from the print shop, Marvin
13 Arbaugh, who left here at one o'clock this morning.
14 (Applause.)

15 Jenice Brown, who replaced her sister, Vera.
16 (Applause.)

17 Harry Day. (Applause.)

18 Wayne Dunn. (Applause.)

19 Walter Frisque, who operates the Xerox in the 20 Chief Clerk's office. (Applause.)

21 Carl Pederson, who also worked very late last
