

1 night. (Applause.)

2 Bob Edwards. (Applause.)

3 Thank you all very much. (Applause.)

4 I would also like to extend our personal
5 thanks through Miss Fitzgerald to the representatives
6 of the Jack Salomon Reporting Service who have so faith-
7 fully reported some 15,000 pages of transcript: Mr.
8 Clifton J. Hunt, Mr. Price Banister, Miss Dorothy Fitz-
9 gerald, and the large group which back them up in the typ-
10 ing job. (Applause.)

11 I think our troopers, even though they are out
12 of uniform, should come forward and take a bow.

13 Trooper Hess. (Applause.)

14 Trooper Howard. (Applause.)

15 Trooper Pierce. (Applause)

16 Trooper Meil. (Applause.)

17 Even at the time he should be taking a bow I am
18 told Trooper Meil is on an errand for the Convention.
19 (Applause.)

20 Now, the next group was not advised of this,
21 and I am not sure they will all hear, but I
