

1 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Burdette.

2 DELEGATE BURDETTE: My parliamentary inquiry
3 was whether or not we are satisfied we had sufficient
4 authority to do such things if they are still discovered.

5 THE PRESIDENT: Well, obviously if there is a
6 typographical error of the kind that means a double word,
7 "the-the", for instance, it can certainly be
8 corrected, Delegate Burdette.

9 DELEGATE BURDETTE: Without resolution?

10 THE PRESIDENT: I think so.

11 Has every delegate answered the quorum call?

12 The clerk will record the quorum call.

13 There being 139 delegates present, a quorum
14 is present.

15 The Chair recognizes Delegate Powers.

16 DELEGATE POWERS: I move that all interfering
17 rules be suspended so we may consider Amendment 32.

18 THE PRESIDENT: The pages will please distribute 19 Amendment AN.

20 While the pages distribute the amendment, the 21 Chair will take a moment to explain its purpose.
