

1 the defeat of a personal conviction and the triumph of 2 having it prevail, the subjection of personal interest
3 to the greater good of all, the deep satisfaction of having 4 done that which was our best and that which was right,
5 and, above all, the sense of having made a contribution
6 to the future of the State of Maryland; and

7 WHEREAS, it is the desire of this Convention
8 that there be preserved among its records a suitable 9 resolution recognizing those exceptional qualities of mind
10 and character with which our President is endowed, which 11 have contributed in such full measure to the completion of 12 its work and to our great satisfaction in having partici-
13 pated in it;

14 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Consti-
15 tutional Convention of Maryland does hereby record its 16 gratitude to its President, the Honorable H. Vernon Eney, 17 for the impartiality, understanding and parliamentary skill
18 with which he has presided over its sessions; its great 19 respect for the tremendous learning, scholarship and 20 knowledge of governmental processes he has displayed, its 21 admiration for his tireless devotion, fidelity, and