

1 single-minded pursuit of excellence; and its undying regard
2 because of his unfailing equilibrium and patience, his tact
3 and wisdom in the settlement of controversial issues, and,
4 most especially, for those qualities of absolute integrity,
5 personal and intellectual honesty, and respect for every 6 individual, which have characterized his conduct throughout 7 this Convention; and

8 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that as a token of our 9 esteem and affection for him, that the Delegates,
10 individually, do herewith present to the Honorable H. Vernon 11 Eney, President of the Convention, an original of the 12 Great Mace of the Convention, which was used during the 13 conduct of its deliberations and is hereby declared to be 14 an official Mace of the Convention, as a symbol of his 15 authority over and dedication to this great work, in the 16 hope that it may serve as a reminder of his unparalleled
17 services in the cause to which he has been so devoted and 18 of the highest personal regard in which he is held by his 19 fellow Delegates.

20 I move the adoption of this Resolution.

21 HONORARY PRESIDENT TAWES: Do I hear a second?
