

1 chairman of one of the committees of this Convention.

2 I think it only proper that at this point that
3 I say very clearly that without the help, the assistance,
4 and the cooperation of the members of my committee and,
5 in addition, the understanding and the help of the 6 members of this Convention, that whatever honor I was 7 able to bring to that job I did bring.

8 Thirdly, I would like on a much more personal
9 note to bring to your attention the fact that I could 10 not have come here at all without my younger daughter
11 assuming much more responsibility than any seventeen-year
12 old should be asked to do, and I convinced her finally to 13 come today and to join me in this, a very significant day.

14 I hope you will welcome my daughter, Tammy,
15 who is in the balcony over the rostrum. (Applause)

16 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Koger.

17 DELEGATE KOGER: Mr. Chairman and ladies and 18 gentlemen:

19 I hope that you will welcome my wife, Dorothy,
20 who is here today. (Applause)

21 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Mason.
