

1 I would like you to know that there is a
2 lady in the balcony who came down here to help me carry
3 home a carton of undelivered speeches and elaborate
4 extensions of remarks, my daughter, Anne Humbert.

5 (Applause)

6 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Harry Taylor.

7 DELEGATE H. TAYLOR: Mr. President and ladies
8 and gentlemen:

9 I would like to have you welcome today the 10 three most important women in my life: my mother, who
11 has put up with me for forty-six years; my sister, Jean
12 Rozamus, and my secretary, who has been with me since I
13 got out of law school. They are seated in the balcony
14 to the rear of the chamber, and I hope you will all join
15 in giving them a warm welcome. (Applause)

16 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Darby.

17 DELEGATE DARBY: Mr. President and ladies and 18 gentlemen:

19 I would like the Convention to extent its 20 usual warm welcome to my family: my wife Andrea, my 21 daughter Paula, my son Matthew, and my mother, Mrs.
