

1 four months here, but her grandfather spent many, many 2 years of his life as a delegate and as President of the 3 Senate across the hall, the Honorable Lansdale Eastman
4 Sasson. (Applause)

5 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Kiefer.

6 DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. President, in addition
7 to my good wife who is one of the family now sitting up 8 in the balcony where she sat so many times, and my 9 sister, Mrs. Stone from Pennsylvania, I would really 10 like to ask you to welcome a couple from Anne Arundel
11 County, Mr. and Mrs. William Tretbar. Mrs. Tretbar
12 is one of those people dedicated to community service.
13 She came to our committee meeting and testified on her 14 own personal behalf as a private citizen. We did not have 15 enough of that. I therefore suggest we give them a
16 hearty welcome. (Applause)

17 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Bard.

18 DELEGATE BARD: Mr. President, I hope we will 19 recognize all of those who have not yet been recognized
20 in the balcony and who love us dearly. (Applause)

21 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Churchill Murray.
