

1 I want to thank the other 141 delegates to
2 this Convention as a Commission Member for having at
3 least justified in my mind the many hours of time that I
4 have been married to constitutional revision. (Applause)

5 (The Secretary of the Convention, Robert J.
6 Martineau, and the Chief of Staff, John C. Brooks, walked
7 up to the rostrum and stood with President Eney.)

8 THE PRESIDENT: I have asked the Secretary
9 of the Convention and the Chief of Staff if there is any
10 last detail that needs to be tended to before we adjourn
11 sine die. They both assure me that everything that
12 needs attention has received attention, and that relieves
13 the Chair of all further responsibility.

14 I recognize Delegate Powers.

15 DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. President, I move that
16 this Constitutional Convention of Maryland adjourn sine
17 die.

18 THE PRESIDENT: Is the motion seconded?

19 (Whereupon, the motion was seconded.)

20 THE PRESIDENT: Is there any discussion?
21 Are you ready for the question?
