

1       afforded by the rule.

2               DELEGATE CHABOT: May I ask the question with 3 regard to Rule 28(a). As I understand, the Committee on 4 General Provisions is required to report a schedule of 5 interim legislation where appropriate, and I suspect
6 that it is probable that the Committee cannot effectively
7 do its work until after the Convention has done a sub-
8 stantial part of its work on the parts of the Constitution.
9 Was the question of the status of such a schedule intended
10 to be also the subject of this November 17 time limit?

11              DELEGATE SCANLAN: Let me put it this way.
12 That issue was never presented to the Committee in the 13 terms that you have just stated it. I for one certainly 14 take the position that since the Committee on General
15 Provisions can hardly prepare a schedule if it has 16 nothing else before it, that obviously the rule was not 17 intended to reach them; but I think on the other hand,
18 you would not want to draft the rule with the general
19 exemption in favor of the Committee on General Provisions, 20 because they have other substantive work to do, too; so 21 I would suggest for the while that we leave the rule as
