

1 rule, I will turn to Rule 28 as it now stands, I believe
2 provides for the right of a minority, at least if there
3 is -- here it is, Rule 28 now provides that the report
4 of a minority of at least 20 per cent of the members of 5 any committee shall be received, printed in the same man-
6 ner as the majority report and treated as an amendment
7 or substitute.

8 So if there is a minority of 20 per cent, it is 9 a guarantee of a written report, which I had hopefully, 10 although we don't deal with it, hopefully would also 11 contain the reasons for the minority's position. If 12 there was less than 20 per cent, while Rule 28 would not 13 guarantee that their report would be printed, I would 14 think, as an ordinary courtesy, that even if it was a
15 minority of one on a committee, if he was really deter-
16 mined to have his views set forth in a form of report, it
17 would be done, but this is a guarantee that if at least 18 20 per cent want it, you have the same rights to printing,
19 et cetera; so there is nothing in our proposed amendment
20 to 28 which would in any way change that guarantee. As 21 I say, hopefully, even though we don't deal with minority
