

1 with such things as the bicameral, unicameral issue,
2 size of the legislature, the qualifications of people run-
3 ning for the legislature, salary compensation and other
4 matters, and yet here we are tonight without the minority
5 reports dealing with those subjects. I don't know how we 6 can reconcile this, but I remember the Chairman of the 7 Rules Committee at that time, unfortunately he is not here
8 today, I remember his saying that if such printing diffi-9 culties did occur at the time, that it would be up to 10 the President to postpone or we could take such other 11 action to make sure that all the delegates had the minority
12 reports in front of them before we took up these weighty
13 questions. I do think, I think it is about time we start
14 to temper our urgency to meet a schedule with consideration
15 to what kind of product we are going to produce, and I
16 think we can act too hastily, and at least the delegates 17 ought to have the minority reports in front of them, at 18 least a day in advance, before we take up these substan-
19 tive matters.

20 THE PRESIDENT: Any further discussion?

21 Before we vote on the adjournment, the Chair
