

1 of deliberation that we would like to take an hour or two 2 or three-hour recess, could we not do that in order to get
3 the committee reports back on the Floor tomorrow afternoon
4 and resolve the whole thing?

5 DELEGATE POWERS: If we reach a point, in answer
6 to the delegate's question, if we reach a point that we 7 are considering matters that the delegates have not had 8 opportunity to familiarize themselves with, there is cer-
9 tainly provision in the rules so that we may delay the 10 proceedings and afford such an opportunity. We would con-11 template that by the time the general orders had been 12 reached, and in view of the ample opportunity that is 13 afforded the committee chairman as well as representatives 14 of the minority to present without limitation of time an 15 explanation of any amendments, that there would not be such 16 a situation as someone voting out of ignorance, but he 17 would be very familiar with exactly what the situation was.

18 THE PRESIDENT: Any further comment? Delegate
19 Gallagher?

20 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, I am advised
21 by the members of the Staff that it will be at least another
