

1 seat on the Floor. We will follow the practice for con-
2 venience of having him occupy the President's chair on the 3 Floor, but he will be speaking from the Floor.

4 We will then, under this debate schedule, take 5 up the Committee Recommendation LB-1 for section-by-section
6 consideration, seriatim, for purpose of amendment. Sec-
7 tion 3.01 would then be open to amendment. Under the 8 rules that we are following, minority spokesmen are entitled 9 to priority in submitting an amendment. In this particular 10 situation, there are, as to some sections, more than one
11 minority report. As to Section 3.01, there is only one 12 minority report. Accordingly, when we move into the 13 section-by-section consideration, and Section 3.01 is 14 called for amendment, I would recognize Delegate Hanson, 15 who is the spokesman for the minority. At that point, he 16 would present the minority report from the Clerk's desk.
17 This, again, would be a presentation of the minority
18 position, with questions and answers, and not debate.

19 At the conclusion of that period, Delegate
20 Hanson would resume his seat and would be recognized for 21 the purpose of submitting an amendment. At that point,
