

1 Legislative District, so that you will see in the 2 structuring of the Assembly that what we have provided for is 3 Senate district, within which are located three whole
4 House districts, so that, therefore, within a single 5 Senate district one would have three members of the House,
6 one from each of the three House districts, and one
7 member of the Senate, the idea being, of course, that 8 the Senator representing^{ed} three times what an individual
9 Delegate representative would represent would have a broader 10 outlook and would have a larger regional approach to the 11 particular subjects of controversy or legislation which 12 might lie before him.

13 I think that the arguments presented in the 14 Michener Report are summed up more fully and completely
15 in the report of the Commission draft, which begins on page 16 125.

17 As you will see from the Committee recommenda-
18 tion, and I do not plan to go into what has been presented
19 rather fully, it is perfectly plain that bills which pass 20 from the House into the Senate and the Senate into the 21 House are reconsidered, they are amended and on many
