

1 much salary should the General Assembly be paid in good
2 faith, and rightly, because of the work that the General
3 Assembly does and the amount of time that it devotes to 4 the office.

5 We have concluded what the figure should be,
6 and we believe that the matter of the pension should be 7 taken care of, if taken care of at all, by the General
8 Assembly itself.

9 Ladies and gentlemen, that completes the presen-
10 tation of the Committee report. I reiterate once again
11 that the majorities which were gathered together for the 12 approval of this report did so when considering the 13 various sections as a package, and consequently the elimi-
14 nation of sections of this report or considerable varia-
15 tions therefrom would have, I am certain, produced a 16 different opinion in the Committee.

17 With that, I thank you for your kind attention.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, Delegate Gallagher.

19 (Applause.)

20 THE CHAIRMAN: There being no provision in the 21 debate schedule for general debate, we now proceed to a
