

1 the motion to adopt the unfavorable report of the 2 Committee with respect to Resolution No. 2. All in favor, 3 signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The motion is 4 carried, and the unfavorable report is adopted. Thank 5 you, Delegate Scanlan.

6 The next item of business is the introduction and 7 first reading of proposals. I had hoped to be able to 8 say to you today that we had all ironed out all problems
9 of manpower and machinery so that the duplicating room
10 was working at one hundred per cent efficiency and that 11 you would have copies of all proposals on your desks. I
12 can say to you that so far as the machinery personnel
13 is concerned, this is true. Unfortunately, we are beset
14 by another problem in that the paper scheduled to arrive
15 day before yesterday did not arrive, and we have run out 16 of our first shipment of salmon paper. Therefore, all of 17 the proposals which will be read across the desk this 18 afternoon have not yet been reproduced. They will be re-
19 produced before the afternoon is over.

20 Let me also, in connection with the reading of 21 proposals, say to the delegates that it is the duty of
