

1 significantly different from the representation of the same
2 three districts by the three delegates. It would simply
3 be more of the same. That is sheer duplication of the 4 representation. I find no need for it or advantage to it.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher?

6 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. Chairman, in view of
7 the fact that I have no further delegates who have indicated
8 a desire to take part in the controlled time debate, I will
9 simply bow to Mr. Hanson and the continuation of his pre-
10 sentation.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Hanson?

12 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Excuse me.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher.

14 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: If there are members who
15 wish to be given even time, I will be happy to do so.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: How much time do you yield to
17 Mr. Bennett, five minutes, hoping it is sufficient?

18 DELEGATE BENNETT: Thank you, sir, but I rise,
19 Mr. Gallagher, for another purpose. (Laughter.)

20 THE CHAIRMAN: For what purpose does Delegate
21 Bennett rise?
