

1 This is because of the extremely high economic standards
2 that we have achieved.

3 I would regret and I will protest change for 4 change's sake.

5 Thank you.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Do any other delegates wish to 7 speak on the question? If not, the Chair will recognize 8 successively Delegate Hanson and Delegate Gallagher for ten 9 minutes each for rebuttal.

10 Delegate Hanson.

11 DELEGATE HANSON: Mr. Chairman, Members of 12 the Committee:

13 We have engaged now for sometime in debate on 14 this question. It is not my desire to prolong the agony 15 of decision, but there are a few comments which I should 16 like to respond to and some things of which I would like 17 to remind the delegates.

18 We are told that the shortcomings that exist
19 in the bicameral legislature are not indigenous to the bi-20 cameral system but are mere byproducts of it. I would 21 suggest that any of the other reforms sought by the
