

1 chairmen a memorandum suggesting for study to the 2 respective committees provisions of the present
3 Constitution. In other words, allocating among the 4 various committees the provisions of the present
5 Constitution. This is by no means binding upon the 6 committees. This does not limit you in any way. It
7 merely is a flag, a warning to you that the other 8 delegates and committees of a convention will assume 9 that a particular committee to whom a section of the 10 present Constitution is assigned will at least consider 11 the possible inclusion or modification or rejection
12 of that section.

13 This should prevent a situation arising 14 where a provision in the present constitution which 15 the Convention may very well want to retain is overlooked
16 because the committees assume it is somebody else's
17 business to take care of it.

18 I am instructed that the tunnel ^{passes} ~~passage~~
19 requested by those delegates who are required to use 20 the Baltimore Harbor Tunnel in coming and going to the 21 Convention are ready and can be picked up at Mr.
