

1 that committee is considering that subject.

2 THE PRESIDENT: It will be done. The only
3 difference between it and a delegate proposal is the 4 name. The proposal by committee, the Rules Committee
5 decided should be called committee recommendation,
6 rather than committee proposal. Otherwise, it will be 7 in the form and except that it will be on a different
8 color paper, will be exactly in the nature of a
9 delegate proposal. It will receive the same treatment, 10 referenced to the committee, reporting back to the 11 Committee on the Whole to the Convention and through 12 the usual routine.

13 I have been asked by both the staff and 14 the Press to make this announcement and request,
15 particularly of the committee chairmen. The information 16 service, as indicated the other day is endeavoring to 17 have ready in the early afternoon each day a schedule
18 of all committee events, I would say, rather than 19 meetings, for the following day -- witnesses, place,
20 times, et cetera.

21 This will be the function of the administrative
