

1 The Clerk tells me that the proposal was 2 in his hand in the hopper before noon, and therefore 3 it should be considered.

4 THE PRESIDENT: With the permission of the 5 delegates, we will redo it on the form to indicate the 6 dates and introduction, et cetera, at a later date;
7 at the moment it will be introduced as Delegate
8 Proposal No. 41.

9 DELEGATE ROBIE: Thank you, Mr. President.

10 THE PRESIDENT: The parliamentarian calls
11 my attention to the fact that it is probably improperly
12 titled as a Delegate Proposal. It is merely offered
13 as an amendment to the rules, and if so, I will withdraw 14 the statement I just made.

15 I will have the Clerk read the proposed 16 amendment. We will later number it and have it
17 appropriately marked in your book.

18 MR. BURRELL: Amendment to Rule 22: On Page
19 8 of the mimeographed standing rules of the Constitutional
20 Convention, add at the end of the list of standing
21 committees the following: No. 12, Committee on Public
