

1 the Convention. From Baltimore: WLB, WCA, WFBR, WYAE,
2 WJZTV, WBAL, WMARTV, Associated Press, Washington, TLB,
3 WETA, WGMS, WTTGTV, WWDC, WMALTV, WRC, and WRCFM; Annapolis:
4 WNAV, WANN, WXTCFM and WIRE; Wheaton, WASH, TWON, Bel Air:
5 WBOV; Havre de Gras: WASA; LaPlata: WSMD; Silver Spring:
6 WQMR, WGAY; Frederick: WFMD.

7 Undoubtedly these representatives of radio and TV
8 stations will be wanting to interview delegates, particularly
9 from their areas at such time as it is possible to do so
10 when the Convention is not in session.

11 You might keep this in mind and endeavor to 12 be available for that purpose before the session, at the 13 noon hour and after the session.

14 As I think all the delegates to the Convention
15 know, the Rhode Island Constitution was withdrawn from 16 the ballot yesterday at the last minute, apparently because 17 impending vote in opposition.

18 The New York Constitution was defeated by 19 the people yesterday. The figures I have for practically 20 the entire state were for, 1,295,970; against, 3,296,000, which 21 means that the last three Constitutions submitted by