

1 may vary from each other, and inasmuch as their decisions
2 leave much room for coming up with different systems
3 of representation, they may adequately take care of all the 4 sections in our State, and the ability to use that 5 margin to accommodate larger sections of our State should 6 not be curtailed by restricting the size of the legislature
7 in the Constitution.

8 Thank you very much.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Are there any questions of the 10 minority spokesman for purposes of clarification of the 11 Minority Report, LB-1D?

12 Delegate Chabot.

13 DELEGATE CHABOT: Delegate Gleason, would you
14 indicate to us which are the States which presently do not 15 set the size of their legislature or set some maximum 16 size in their constitutions?

17 DELEGATE GLEASON: If you will hold it a
18 minute, I have to say in response to that, because I asked 19 myself that question, that the research material that 20 we have does not show that fact. It shows how many are 21 established by law. Unless the Chairman has it --
