

1 DELEGATE GLEASON: Implicit in your question
2 is, by giving the power that we seek here with the 3 minority report to the legislature, that that will bring 4 all
5 the struggle /over again. I don't think that is an 6 assumption that can be borne out. Certainly, I have al-7 ready recited the fact that we have today the control of 8 the delegations in the lower house in four areas of the 9 State, 70 per cent of the votes. I think also the fact
10 that we have got to remember that the Supreme Court
11 decisions hit like a bomb. There were relationships, 12 areas represented. This caused great distress and strain.
13 The legislative group themselves did not have any clear 14 guidance as to how far they could go or how far they 15 shouldn't go; and they still don't today, but I think that 16 that kind of a hassle, although it will always be a 17 problem, that kind of a hassle is not likely to be emulated 18 and duplicated again; but I don't think, just because the 19 fact it is a difficult problem, we should take that away
20 from where it can be solved the best.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Are there any further questions of the Minority Spokesman?
