

1 be taken up on Monday will be constitutional recognition
2 of education, which, of course, would include guarantees,
3 direction of education, the intent that this Convention
4 proposes to include in the Constitution concerning the 5 intent of education and we would extend a hearty invi-
6 tation to any of the delegates present who may want 7 to be heard on this particular issue. Later on the 8 General Provision Committee will consider many other
9 facets of education. For the time being, we will limit 10 our invitation to those who may wish to be heard on 11 the constitutional recognition of education, 2 p.m.
12 on Monday. Thank you, sir.

13 THE PRESIDENT: Any further announcements
14 by committee chairman?

15 If not, I have just a few other things to 16 mention before the adjournment. The announcement by 17 committee chairmen indicates that there is a rather 18 heavy schedule of committee meetings and hearings for 19 next week. We have thus far not received requests from 20 any committees to provide stenographic reporting of 21 committee hearings, and I remind the committee chairmen
