

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Malkus, you have a
2 little less than a minute.

3 DELEGATE MALKUS: Mr. President, it
4 won't take that long, but I am enjoying this Convention
5 now, Mr. President. I feel pretty good, thank you, sir,
6 and I suppose there is nothing wrong, Mr. President --
7 you may disagree with me -- with having a little laugh here
8 and now. This doesn't hurt anything in the world.

9 But on the serious note, remember what I said.
10 We who represent the agricultural area, I stand here
11 before you, sir, and I know that you raise a few sheep,
12 but, Mr. President, the laughter was on your time.
13 (Applause.)

14 Now, Mr. President, wouldn't you think it is 15 a good time for me to sit down?

16 THE CHAIRMAN: I would say it is an opportune
17 time. (Applause.)

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Any other delegate desire
19 to speak in opposition to the amendment?

20 DELEGATE MILLER: Mr. Chairman.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Miller.
