

1 yield.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: You may proceed, Delegate James.

3 DELEGATE JAMES: Knowing his fearless nature,
4 I know he is not frightened. Would this proposal give 5 the Senate the axe? Would it cut the Senate almost 6 of necessity? You read this closely and I think you will 7 find that.

8 DELEGATE MALKUS: Now, Mr. President, this in 9 all probability --

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Malkus, you have 30
11 seconds. (Laughter)

12 DELEGATE MALKUS: This, in all probability, would 13 help me because it would throw me into an area that 14 maybe I am a little bit better known. But I am not 15 here for that, Mr. President. I am here to represent 16 the area, real, real rural area and I hope that it is not 17 a sin.

18 I am serious. Being a conservative--I hope that 19 does not make me a conservative.

20 I guess my 30 seconds are up. Starting to 21 go out to sea, now, ladies and gentlemen, starting to
