

1 to have a little fun here.

2 I hope sincerely you will give some consideration
3 to the real, real rural areas and you have to keep this
4 House and Senate large in order for us to even have a
5 squeaky voice.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Any other delegate desire to speak
7 in opposition to the amendment?

8 DELEGATE WHITE: Will Delegate Malkus yield?

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Malkus has used his time.
10 He has no time to yield.

11 DELEGATE MALKUS: You are most kind. Thank you
12 very much. (Laughter)

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Does Delegate Bard desire to 14 speak in opposition to the amendment?

15 DELEGATE BARD: I should like to speak in 16 opposition to the amendment and to give the delegates
17 the benefit of my only experiences with it rather briefly.
18 When one first looks at the amendment, it looks good
19 because it promises so much to so many. But the more one
20 studies it, as I have, after first reflection, one
21 recognizes that it has inherently within it a goodly number
