

1 THE PRESIDENT: I will see that the corrected
2 copies are distributed to you this afternoon, if this is 3 at all possible. Delegate Bamberger?

4 DELEGATE BAMBERGER: Mr. President, I was told 5 some hours ago that it had been reproduced and it may be 6 only a matter of finding it. One of the pages is now
7 looking for it. If it is found, may it be introduced?

8 THE PRESIDENT: If it is found before we 9 adjourn this afternoon, it can be introduced. If not,
10 I suggest to you that you could move to suspend the rules
11 to have a quicker consideration tomorrow, not considera-
12 tion tomorrow, but make a motion tomorrow.

13 Any other motions and resolutions?

14 I have very few announcements. At the request 15 of the Governor, his address to this Convention has been 16 postponed from day after tomorrow, Wednesday, until 17 Friday, September 29. I may say by way of explanation 18 that the reason for the postponement is because the 19 Governor regards his address to this Convention as of 20 such importance to him and to the State, and he hopes to 21 the Convention, that he desires to have more time to
