

1 three minutes. Any announcements by Committee Chairmen?

2 DELEGATE KOSS: Mr. President, the Committee
3 on Suffrage and Elections will meet tomorrow morning at 4 10 o'clock at Shaw House to hear Mr. Louis Deasla, who 5 is the reporter to the Committee on the Elective Franchise
6 of the Commission.

7 DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. President, the Committee
8 on Personal Rights and the Preamble will meet immediately
9 after this meeting but I want to announce ^{that} tomorrow, immed-
10 iately after adjournment of this Convention, we are holding 11 a hearing, ^{or} really a discussion on matters that are 12 appropriately to be considered in the Bill of Rights of 13 the Constitution as contrasted to those matters which 14 might properly be left to the Legislature. There will be ~~a~~
^{two} ~~few~~ people to be heard tomorrow. One is Professor Louis 15 Asper of University of Maryland Law School and the other is 16 Professor Rosen of the University of Maryland Law School.
17 I understand their views do not coincide. We might expect
18 a lively discussion. The matter came up before our Committee
19 in connection with the possible consideration of abolition
20 of capital punishment and one of the problems originally 21 raised is whether it's a matter to be left to the
