

1 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Kiefer?

2 DELEGATE ^{KIEFER}~~KIEFER~~: At three o'clock this

3 afternoon, the Committee on Personal Rights and Preamble
4 will hold a hearing on the questions, what matters are 5 appropriately includable in the Declaration of Rights and 6 what matters are properly left to the discretion of the 7 Legislature, with a special emphasis on specifically should 8 the issue of abolition of capital punishment be determined
9 by constitutional acts or by an act of the Legislature.

10 As previously announced, the speakers today
11 will be Professors Louis D. Asper, University of Maryland
12 Law School and Professor Sanford J. Rosen. However, 13 it is anticipated there will be enough interest in this 14 that we will use the senate chamber as the hearing room.
15 It will start at three o'clock promptly following conclusion
16 of this meeting.

17 THE PRESIDENT: Any further announcements?

18 Delegate Gallagher?

19 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, the Commi-
20 ttee on the Legislative Branch will meet ten minutes
21 after the conclusion of the session to hear from Dr.
