

1 hearings as they go along.

2 THE PRESIDENT: Actually, as I understand it,
3 the principle hearing room, which is normally the 4 delegation room of the Baltimore City Delegation to the 5 House of Delegates, will accommodate more people than the 6 chamber, and the reason the officers suggested that the 7 house chamber not be used for hearings is because it is not 8 very well adapted to hearings, but also because the members
9 have papers in their desks, and we wanted to avoid 10 interference with those as much as possible.

11 Any further announcements by committee chairmen?
12 Delegate Mudd?

13 DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, the Committee
14 on the Judicial Branch meets again today at three p.m., 15 at which time we have the honor and privilege of hearing
16 from Chief Judge Hammond of the Maryland Court of 17 Appeals. We will also resume hearings tomorrow morning 18 at ten a.m., with the three witnesses scheduled in the 19 morning. Thank you.

20 THE PRESIDENT: Further announcements by 21 committee chairmen? Delegate Boyer?
