

1 Convention or of its committees will be gratefully received.

2           The chairmen of the committees at our meeting
3 week before last agreed to present the draft constitution
4 recommended by the Constitutional Convention Commission
5 as proposals to the Convention. Each article or other appro-
6 priate subdivisions of the draft constitution will be 7 submitted as a separate proposal. There are 16 such proposals 8 which are being introduced today by the chairmen of the 9 respective committees at the request of the Constitutional 10 Convention Commission.

11           On behalf of each chairman, I want to point out that 12 the introduction of a proposal by him does not indicate that 13 he personally either agrees or disagrees with the provisions 14 of the proposal. The introduction by the Chairman is merely 15 a means of placing the draft constitution recommended by the 16 Constitutional Convention Commission formally before the 17 Convention.

18           Each delegate has heretofore received a copy of 19 the interim report of the Constitutional Convention Commis-
20 sion. Each of you should have received this morning a copy
21 of the final report of the Constitutional Convention
