

1 Now in Section 2 we deal with the time of
2 registration, and I won't go over the details of it.
3 Within ten days after a person has been engaged to 4 lobby, or to advocate, he should register. There
5 will be times, however, that a person will have already 6 contacted a delegate or done some work and without 7 having registered, in which case he must do so within 8 three days.

9 In Section 3, we set forth the information
10 that would be required on the registration form. Hope-11 fully these forms would be available not only in the 12 secretary's office, but in the possession of each committee
13 chairman so when a witness came to testify before a
14 committee, if he were within one of the categories
15 embraced in the regulation, he would fill out the form.
16 We have also provided that the information required
17 under the proposed regulation could be supplied by mail.

18 On the question of failure to comply, as I
19 indicated in the beginning, we really don't have any 20 club, any deterrent. All we could do is bar a person from 21 further appearances before the Convention, if he neglected
