

1 to abide by the regulation. This would be done after
2 notice and opportunity for hearing before the Rules
3 Committee. The Rules Committee would recommend to the 4 Convention. The Convention would decide whether or not 5 such a person should be penalized by being denied the 6 privilege from appearing at further sessions of the 7 Committee or the Convention, either to the end of 8 the Convention or for a limited time.

9 We also, I might add this point, it seems to 10 be relevant here. Delegate Morgan, who did appear before
11 our committee, recommended, suggested that we exempt
12 from the applicability of the regulation those witnesses
13 who were invited by a committee to appear.

14 The Committee considered this at some length.
15 There seems to be a dash of fairness in support of that 16 proposal. On the other hand, it seems to us if we 17 granted this exemption, in view of the promiscuity with 18 which invitations have been extended to putative
19 witnesses, we would be taking, I think one of the 20 members of the committee, perhaps myself, said it is a 21 toothless regulation, let us not extract the gums, but
