

1 the provisions of the Enabling Act make it reasonably
2 clear, if not explicitly, that the various officers of 3 this State shall cooperate with the Convention, and 4 I would assume that the Secretary of State would 5 cooperate to the extent of receiving those reports.
6 They have no putative impact. If they are perjurous 7 or inaccurate, what have you, in the end as in the 8 beginning, the only club, the only inducement to a 9 full and fair report would be publicity, identification
10 and disclosure, reinforced, of course, by the intrepid
11 representatives of this State.

12 We have another section that prohibits
13 contingent compensation, Section 7 and at this point I 14 would like, well, I will come to it in a second. Under 15 Section 7 we bar contingent compensation. However, as 16 it reads now, and I will offer an amendment approved 17 by the committee, suggested by Delegate Morgan, and 18 approved by the committee; I will offer this amendment 19 when we reach that point, and after the report has 20 formally been moved for adoption.

21 At the present time we prohibit compensation,
