

1 in a representative capacity. It would be very nice, as 2 Delegate Bamberger and the sub-committee reminded us
3 if we had the power to reach out and some way get out
4 those who employ the agents. I am sure I am not letting 5 any secrets out but there have been a number of 6 organizations that have been beseiging the delegates
7 with full blown copies of proposed constitutions, 8 and other matters, and it would be very nice if we 9 had a way of finding out just who all these people are,
10 what they represent, how much money they are spending 11 in the publicity effort, but the statute is silent on 12 that. It gives us no powers to get there and so I am 13 afraid that our answer there again is there is not much 14 we can do about that, and as I said, maybe this is the 15 regulation, you create a net to catch gnats but the 16 wasps go free. Mr. Bamberger, do you have anything
17 else?

18 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Freedlander.

19 DELEGATE FREEDLANDER: Mr. President, and,
20 Mr. Scanlan, under Category 8, exceptions, would this 21 apply to delegates who are members of this body who are
