

1 THE PRESIDENT: Technically I think probably
2 the motion to approve the resolution ought to be before
3 you first, but I don't think there is any objection
4 and the Chair will rule that in the absence of objection,
5 any objection, the stylistic amendment just suggested
6 by the committee will be made. Is there any objection
7 at all?

8 THE PRESIDENT: Hearing none, the resolution
9 is amended so as to substitute for the word resolution 10 wherever it appears in the body of the proposal, the 11 word "regulation."

12 DELEGATE SCANLAN: The second proposed committee
13 amendment is substantive. It is the one to which I
14 adverted earlier, namely, the suggestion of Delegate 15 Morgan that in the last line of Page 4, Section 7, of 16 the proposed regulation, dealing with contingent compen-
17 sation, the last line thereof, now reading "contingent 18 upon such adoption or defeat," be eliminated, and 19 that there be substituted for the language reading
20 "that is determined" --

21 THE PRESIDENT: Read that again, Mr. Scanlan;
