

1 the specialized interest that he should have in that court,
2 would there be any recourse in that case?

3 THE CHAIRMAN: What do you mean by "recourse"?

4 DELEGATE B. MILLER: We are faced here with 5 the alternative of having courts prescribed by law or 6 prescribed by rule. I would assume if they were prescribed
7 by law the ordinary citizen could then go about whatever
8 method is necessary to make known his wishes in that area.

9 How would he do this if the courts are prescribed
10 by rule?

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Mudd.

12 DELEGATE MUDD: You mean to have the court pro-13 vided or to --

14 THE CHAIRMAN: I take it the question is by what 15 means could a private citizen make known to the court
16 exercising rule making power the need or the desire
17 for a specialist judge in a particular place? Is that 18 your question?

19 DELEGATE B. MILLER: Yes.

20 DELEGATE MUDD: To appeal to a very competent
21 standing committee on rules composed of 16 talented judges
