

1 there was anything that would preclude the General Assembly
2 from establishing such an office and giving it certain 3 responsibilities.

4 DELEGATE MUDD: Under this proposal I would 5 say that would be within the power of the Courts, under 6 its rule making power, and we did consider the 7 possibility of administrative agency, possibly an admini-
8 strative judge; but I think it is the, I understand it 9 to be the contemplation of this article that it would 10 be accomplished by rule making.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bennett.

12 DELEGATE BENNETT: Isn't it true that there is 13 going to be a tremendous amount of administrative work,
14 particularly during this period of reorganization?

15 DELEGATE MUDD: Yes.

16 DELEGATE BENNETT: Don't you think something
17 should be included in here specifically authorizing the 18 establishment of that office and authorizing the courts
19 to delegate to it certain powers?

20 DELEGATE MUDD: I think it would be more appro-
21 priately a transitory provision.
